Art.2

The ranking list includes the candidates admitted to the competitive selection procedure, in accordance with the order of merit determined by the Evaluation Committee at the conclusion of the assessment process, indicating the winners of positions awarded with a PhD scholarship and without a PhD scholarship, as well as the candidates assessed by the Committee as not eligible for admission to the programme.

Art. 3

Candidates declared successful and admitted to the PhD programme must confirm acceptance of the position assigned to them and complete the enrolment procedures for the PhD programme as specified in the PhD Programme Regulations and the relevant Administrative Appendix. All candidates admitted to the PhD programme, both with and without a scholarship, are subject to further verification of their academic qualifications, which may include a request for additional documentation certifying possession of the required degree. In cases where the documentation is found to be incomplete, enrolment in the programme shall be considered “conditional” until the required documentation has been submitted.

Art. 4

In the event of withdrawal or failure to enrol in the PhD programme, as there are no further candidates deemed eligible for admission, no slide of the ranking list shall take place.
